DESCRIPTION

Plas Bellin Hall is a former gentleman's residence which has been extended and developed over recent years to now comprise an extensive range of accommodation including self-contained apartments, studios, mews properties, detached cottage and en suite bedsits.

The property has been previously utilised as a secure residential complex. In addition to the residential accommodation there is a hall/ community centre, and a children's centre with playground which could be used as additional accommodation.

The original Plas Bellin Hall dates from the mid 19th century and is Grade II listed. The accommodation is arranged over two floors and briefly comprises reception, office, conference room, dining room, living room, bathrooms, laundry room, seven kitchenettes and 11 bed sits (the majority with en suite bathrooms.) Adjoining the main hall are one-bedroom self-contained studio apartments that form a side of the rear external courtyard.

More recent additions include Morgan Mews (terrace of four two-bedroom cottages) and Long Barns (terrace of five two-bedroom cottages.) Each of these individual dwellings comprise a kitchen, living room, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

There is a separate detached two-bedroom cottage, two three-bedroom apartments, a four-bedroom duplex apartment, three one-bedroom studio apartments and two three-bedroom apartments. There is a separate detached hall/ community centre (Joan Boswel Hall) which briefly comprises a large hall and stage, kitchen, dining area, W.C's, shower room, store rooms, and a mezzanine with viewing platform and offices.
